

YOSSI BALBIN

GRAPHIC DESIGNER | CONTRACTOR | CREATIVE

I'm a Swinburne-trained designer with over 10 years of experience across agency, in-house, and freelance roles. My background is a mix of high-volume production for national brands like Target and Snooze at Wellcom, and a decade of building brand identities from the ground up for schools and agencies like Leibler Yavneh College and Milkman Agency. Whether I'm developing complex iconography for ANZ, producing engaging social media content, or preparing press-ready files for print, I focus on making sure designs adhere to brand-guidelines and reflect a clear message. I am trained in Adobe Suite, Microsoft Office, Project Management and AI technologies. Now, I'm looking to bring that versatile toolkit to a long-term team where I can expand my technical expertise that ultimately leads to creative direction.
